

Specialization Development
FW 307

Credit hours: 1

Term offered: Winter

Instructor: Edge

Course objectives: A fundamental assumption of the B.S. Fisheries and Wildlife curriculum is that students (and graduates) must become engaged in developing lifelong learning strategies. This course is designed to help students identify potential careers while assisting them to plan a curriculum to support their goals.

Course content:

1. Learn essential knowledge, skills, and abilities for career and education planning;
2. Prepared a personal inventory of knowledge, skills, and abilities;
3. Write essays on:
 - a. Professional goals, and
 - b. Professional preparation in and out of the classroom; and
4. Prepare a curriculum that supports the attainment of goals.

Prerequisites: None

Text: None

Term papers: Essays

Testing: P/N only, based on assignment completion and evaluation, as well as attendance.

Students for whom the course is intended: All undergraduate students in F&W. Students take this course their junior year.